BLUES HAD A WALKAWAY AT INDI-ANAPOLIS YESTERDAY.

Pardee Was Batted Out of the Box. and Was Succeeded by Stricklett. Who Was Hit but Three Times in Five Innings.

the old, old story yesterday of leaders being knocked down by tailenders. Everything went well for Manning's rejuvenated aggregation. Hulen, Gear, Ganzel Stricklett especially deserves great credit for the victory. He succeeded Pardee on the slab at a most trying time and without a moment's warming up, he handed out two runs by wildness in this finding, and again in the sixth, his wildness was coastly. However, he settled well when he did get down on carth and three hits was the best the Indown on carth and three hits was the large of the Indown on the I evidence in the hitting and in the plays that won.
Stricklett especially deserves great credit for the diana could do, one being a triple by McParland to open the ninth, but he failed to tally.

The filtes started off with a pair of runs registered on Kahoe's miss of Hulen's third strike, Clymer's gift, and force by Gear followed by Halligan's fly to left and Gannel's single.

The Indians tied this up in their half, Hogriever hitting for two sacks, Hartzell beating out a bunt. More single and Gonding's throwing wild to second ond.

The wisitors chalked up a single tally in the third on an error of Mots, giving Hulen a life, Clymer's sacrifice and Gear's single to center.

Hulen, to open the fifth, bunted and Scott threw wild to first, Hulen perching on third, Clymer wolked, Gear advanced them, Halligan scoked a hard line drive to left that Hartzell muffed and hard line drive to left that Hartzell muffed and Clymer tallied.

Hogriever, for the Indians, turned loose his second twobagger. Hartzell hit to Hulen who fumbled, Motz cracked a twobagger to right, scoring Hogriever and Hartzell. McFariand got passports and then a passed hall scored Motz. Flynn, too, got passports, a wild pitch advanced the runners, but Stewart and Hickey were fanned and Kahoe refired by an easy one that Frigickiet headlesten.

Sir Thomas Lipton Arrives.

NEW YORK, Sept. L.—The Cunard line steamer Campania arrived at quarantine to-night at 7:20 o'clock and was met in the Narrows by a flotilia of tigs and the steam yacht Erin to greet Sir Thomas Lipton, who was a passenger on the liner. The quarantine commissioner's boat, the State of New York, also appeared on the scene with a large party under the guidance of Commissioner Palmer. The party consisted of Colonel Treadwell Governor Roosevelt's millitary secretary, who was sent by the governor to receive Sir Thomas Lipton; a number of officials and members from the New York Yecht Club, a number of members from the New York Yecht Club, a number of members from the New England Society and other similar organizations. All boarded the steamer and came up to the dock.

Sir Thomas Lipton, when seen at quarantine, said that he had had a pleasant trip, but was glad to arrive at his destination. He said his party was small, consisting of Mr. William Fife, Jr., Mr. Ratsey, the salimaker, and Sir Thomas secretary.

Sir Thomas in his welcome down the bay received an invitation extending the courtestes of fity-six clubs while in this country and an invitation to lead the married division of the Dewey day celebration with his yacht Erin. Both were accepted.

celebration with his yacht Erin. Both were accepted.

One of the first questions Sir Thomas asked after the first greeting was, "How is the Columbia?"

He then expressed the belief that the best boat would win, saying: "We felt it a waste of time to come here with anything but the best boat in England. She is here now. We are going to do our best. The Shamrock will do her best, and we will try to do better than some people who have been here before. Whatever the outcome of the race may be, I am sure if I am defeated it will be because I have not the best boat. I feel that I am among friends."

Shamrock Is Ready to Sail. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Captain Archie Hogarth, the Shamrock's sailing master, and his assistant, Captain Wringe, have timed their work so well that the yacht, which arrived here August 18, after an ocean passage of some furteen days from the Clyde, was ready to-day in her racing rig, and in a new coat of green paint to receive her owner, Sir Thomas Lipton, and her designer, William Fife, who arrived by the steamer Campania.

The Shamrock did not leave her anchorage to-day, some of her crew being engaged in painting her deck, or rather the canvas which covers the steel deck. Others of the crew painted the yacht's hull, and during the afternoon all hands were put to work scraping and cleaning the spars stored on board the lighter Ulster, the latest acquisition to the Lipton fieet.

Rich Hill Fair Closes.

Rich Hill. MO., Sept. 1.—(Special.) The ninth annual meeting of the Rich Hill Fair Association which closed to-day was the biggest success in the history of that organization, both from a financial and general standpoint. Frank James, as starter, gave universal satisfaction. The leading racing, events to-day were a 2:20 trot and a 2:20 pace. The first was won by Patriot M., in straight heats; Jim Haven, second; Lady Clarisse, third; Gambart, fourth. Loudell also started. Best time, 2:21.

In the 2:20 pace for a purse of $500, there were seven starters. Maud A., won: Looking Forward, second; Consolation, third, Phyllis, fourth. Five heats were required, the second being declared a dead heat between Looking Forward and Virgle Truce. Lady Labette and S. P. were drawn after the fourth heat. The best time was 2:12%.

The game between the J. J. Fosters and Sunflowers Sunday promises to be one of the best amateur exhibitions that has been given this season. Each man is at home in his position and this will insure a clean fielding game. The players are also good batters; in fact, there is not a weak hitter on either team. A good crowd is expected, as the members of both teams have many friends and admires. Ladies will be admitted free.

In reply to "A Member of the J. J. Foster Bas ball Club." In reply to "A Member of the J. J. Foster Base-bail Club."

I am surprised that it has taken this member of the J. J. Fosters three games to find out that our umpire has robbed them out of games. One other Kansas Clity team had the same complaint to make after being beaten by a score of 9 to 8. They asked for a return game with their own umpire, which request was granted, the result of the game being 13 to 6 against them. They must have killed their own umpire when they got him home. As regards Mr. Strarup, "pitcher," he has been in Leavenworth with visiting teams, three times this season, and his pitching last Sunday was glitedged to what it has been before, so I would advise him to "just toss the ball up hereafter." If the Fosters are so anxious to get back at us, they can get us down to Kansas City on very reasonable terms, where they have an umpire of their own.

Tommy Corcoran, the crack shortstop of the Cincinnati club, is talked of as the successor of Burk Ewing. The Cincinnati fans think that Corcorar would prove a good manager. Ewing is making a mistake when he persists in keeping Elherfeld on third. He is a great shortstop and will prove it if he is given a chance. But what is the matter with Coreoran? The St. Louis club is higher in the race than it deserves to be. It is playing second division ball of a pronounced kind, as its one victory in four games with the bogus Washington team shows. The responsibility rests with Manager Tebeau, who has exclusive control of the players. He is not hampered or interfered with in any way. The record of his team since his retirement from active duty is not recilitable to him and is a disappoinment to its patrons. Touted as prospective pennant winners at the beginning of the season, they drouped steadily to the head of the second division. They climbed back to fifth place, only to lose it through their miserable work against the Washington club. Their only hope of finishing in sixth place is that the Chicago club's slump will continue. Sporting News.

The international championship battle between Terry McGovern and Fedlar Falmer, which is scheduled to take place at Tuckahoe the afternoon of September 11, promises to be one of the greatest betting events ever decided in this country. Although the contest is still ten days off, many important wagers have been placed on the result of the contest. The largest bet recorded up to date was one made by Sam Harris, McGovern's manager, with Sam Blackstaff, an Englishman who recently came here to see the fight. The amount posted was 11,690 and was put up at even money. In a majority of the wagers already recorded even money has been the ruling price, but within a few days it is expected that the odds will be on McGovern. A number of English sports are due to arrive here in a few days and it is said the visitors come over with commissions to take all the McGovern money in sight. Palmer and McGovern are training hard for the battle and each is confident of carrying off the honors. They are both within two pounds of their fighting weight, which is 115 pounds.

Park This Afternoon and Win Prizes. The children will have their last carnival of the year at Troost park this afternoon. Queen Liputia is to have charge of this gathering, which is to be called the "Festival of the Fairies." Among other things she says that there will be appropriate prizes given by her to "the person who shall wear the best costume characterizing the clan of the brownies: to the person who shall wear the best costume characterizing the clan of the brownies; to the most favored couple who shall dance in fantastic step; to the most favored couple who shall dance in fantastic step; to the cakewalk; to the person who shall sing in the most acceptable manner, and to the person who shall, in any manner not already mentioned, by reason of especial merit, find favor."

The awards of these prizes are to be made by a committee of experts on singing, dancing and cakewalking. That the contest will be a close one is evident from the fact that nearly 100 children who took part in "Cinderella" at the Auditorium recently, having been especially invited, are to take part in the festival.

It was a common white collar button that was responsible for Moore's downfall a second time. The buttons were found in his possession when he was arrested.

BETTER THAN A GOLD MINE

A gold mine is an uncertain property, that may evidence great riches to-day and prove worthless to-morrow, leaving its owner hopeless and stranded. This cannot happen to anyone wise enough to invest in the tropical land proposition offered by the Kansas City agency of the Grijaiva Land and Coffee Company.

The Grijaiva Land and Coffee Company, upon full compilance with its contract of purchase, guarantees to pay to the investor a dividend of not less than 26 per cent on the to-tal amount of the purchase price paid for land, and as an evidence of good faith the United States Trust Company, of Kansas City, trustee, is authorized, under its agreement with the Grijaiva Land and Coffee Company, to retain in its possession not less than 26 per cent of all Company, to retain in its possession not less than 26 per cent of all money paid by the investor, for the purpose of warranting the payment of the dividend guaranteed by the Grijaiva Land and Coffee Company. Grijalva Land and Coffee Company.
On every share, representing one acre, the investor is required to pay only 34.17 a month for 72 months; at the end of that time his purchase will have a net value of 1890 to 51,290 an acre, and pay a dividend of 20 to 50 per cent on the purchase price. It is the most liberal and safe proposition ever offered by a responsible business institution. You can take one or more shares in any of the small syndicates now forming.
